

The following degree programs at Monroe College lead to Professional Licensure:

Students that graduate from the MS in Accounting program must pass all four parts of the CPA licensing examination.

Students that graduate from the PN program must pass the NCLEX-RN licensing examination.

Students that graduate from the RN program must pass the NCLEX-RN licensing examination.

Students that graduate from the BS in Education program must pass the following certification examinations:

1. EAS
2. Multisubject Content Specialty Test – Early Childhood Education
3. Multisubject Content Specialty Test – Literacy
4. Multisubject Content Specialty Test – Mathematics
5. Multisubject Content Specialty Test – Academic Knowledge
6. EDTPA